

Hair Loss Treatment Options – Cost/Benefits

Comparative costs of hair loss treatments, assuming acceptable individual outcomes over 30 years.

Investment Decision - Study the above cost/benefit comparisons closely. Fully understand the advantages/disadvantages of each of the alternatives available to you.

Think “Long term”. It is obvious that Hair Replacement Surgery in the long run, is significantly cheaper, results are superior and permanent. The artistry and skill are in the hands of the surgeon. Choose your surgeon with care.

| | MEDICATION (Oral) | HAIR PIECES | HAIR TRANSPLANT (Avg. 2 Procedures) |
|--------------------------|--|--|--|
| ADVANTAGES | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> manageable monthly cost 90% retain hair (crown only) promotes new hair (48%) | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> instant “hair” good density | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> permanent undetectable natural |
| DISADVANTAGES | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> continuous use possible minor side effects | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> unit requires replacement six weekly unit servicing on-going high annual maintenance cost frequently noticeable | <ul style="list-style-type: none"> high initial cost slow results (12 – 18 mths) |
| TOTAL COST (AUS) | $27,000 (Monthly: $75 x12mths x 30yrs) | $64,000 * new units every 2 years * $6000 plus maintenance * 6-8 wks and colouring – 4 x p.a. | Up to $17,300 (for 2 procedures, but 1 may be sufficient) |
| WEEKLY COST (AUS) | $17.30 | $41.00 | $11.30 (may be less) |